

Takla Lake First Nation Education Advisory Committee

The Education Department is seeking five individuals (preferably including one Elder and one youth) who are interested assisting all areas of education within Takla. The five members of the committee would provide advisory support to the education team concerning: Nus Wadeezulh Community School, secondary education, post-secondary education and adult education matters. This group will meet once a month to discuss issues and develop potential solutions to enhance our school systems.

The five members will be responsible for reviewing and clearly understanding the following information:

- INAC Education Guidelines
- FNEESC Guidelines
- TLFN Post-Secondary Handbook
- Existing Nus Wadeezulh Community School Process and Procedures
- Takla Lake First Nation Policies and Procedures
- Education Schedules

The intent of this committee will be to advise on and discuss the following areas:

- Community uptake and endorsement of school programs
- School gathering content
- Physical education, peer tutoring and buddy reading programs
- A vision statement for the school gymnasium wall
- Occasional education budget and spending advisory
- Education/ community notices and communication
- Language and culture in education
- PAC Meetings
- Nutritional education
- Education policy and procedures
- Fundraising ideas and school trips
- Visions for a high school

The committee will be compensated through honorarium, once a month a $50 honorarium will be provided to each of the five members on the committee. We hope for a well-rounded committee and encourage everyone to apply. However, only successful applicants will be contacted.

If interested, please email a one page letter as to why you would be a good fit for the education advisory committee and send it to edcoordinator@taklafn.ca.
