

Thlut Cho

The Big Smoke

THLUT CHO: THE BIG SMOKE

Leadership wants to make sure Takla Nation members are kept up to date on news and information. Sheanna Williams is now the Communications Officer for the Nation, and Robert Abraham is our community-based photographer. We will be producing Thlut Cho every few weeks. The new website is up and running so take a look there to get more information. Keep an eye on Facebook too!

Christmas!

Have a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! Wishing you all the best that a holiday could offer. Peace, joy, and love to you and your family. May your Christmas season be filled with joy and light! Hope your stocking is stuffed full of joy this year.

Office Closure for Christmas Break

- Prince George office – December 21, 2018 – January 7, 2019
- Takla Office – December 21, 2018 – January 7, 2018
- TTP – December 21 – 26, 2018 OPENED December 27 – 28, 2018 CLOSED December 29, 2018 – January 7, 2019

Annual General Assembly December 11 – 14, 2018

After an amazing four days, filled with discussion, conversation, laughter and learning Takla has come together once again and accomplished a lot. A few of the topics discussed at the AGA were: RCMP Update, Band Office Grand Opening, Housing Presentation, Administration Update, Health and Social, Public works, Road Upgrade, Recycling, Employment and Training, Lands Presentation, Sasuchan Update, TTP Update, and the Bus Update. With guest speaker Eugene Harry. Elder Eugene Harry is a member of the Cowichan Tribe, and a shaker church minister with the Squamish First Nation. He has been the Cultural Advisor at the BC Aboriginal Childcare Society since 2007. Zandra Ross was the facilitator for the AGA.

Community Meetings

- AGA Takla – December 11 – 14, 2018
- Community Meeting – Prince George – February 6 – 9, 2019

Transit

Takla's Bus

Want to travel to and from the community for the holidays? The bus will be running, and the first few trips are FREE!

Starting January 10, 2019, it will be $40 each way to ride the bus.

You can get tickets for the bus at TTP, Takla's Finance Office, and at the bus before it leaves, starting January 10th.

Schedule

The bus will be free from December 20, 2018 to January 10, 2019 for the schedule below.

The first trip for the new bus will be happening Thursday December 20, 2018 going to Takla then back to Prince George Friday December 21, 2018.

- Prince George to Takla – Thursday and Sunday
- Takla to Prince George – Friday and Monday

Please see the Facebook page for times!

BAND OFFICE GRAND OPENING

Takla has come so far. Opening our new Band Office is another step in the right direction. Takla is moving forward with another achievement that we can all celebrate because in every way Takla has worked together to make this possible. What makes this even more special for the community is to celebrate together on this special day!